

With Halloween arriving early to the Island of Cozumel, you might think that surviving a zombie apocalypse might sound like something right out of a movie. Well...your dive club has the answer to the ultimate question...What can one do to survive a Zombie Apocalypse?

Complete the Zombie Apocalypse Diver Course!

As a special courtesy, and to make sure that the only survivors of the Zombie Apocalypse are United Dive Club members, we are offering a special Halloween treat for you.

For a mere $50-60 (and what is money once the zombie apocalypse happens) the United Dive Club will be training those of you who desire to be alive-post apocalypse, with the PADI certified Zombie Apocalypse Diver Course!

This course will be offered just prior to the Zombie Apocalypse reaching Cozumel on Wednesday night, September 25, 2024.

Preparing for a zombie apocalypse as a scuba diver can be quite unique and fun! Here are some specialized tips to help you get ready:

1. Utilize Your Diving Skills:

- Underwater Escape: Use your diving skills to escape underwater if zombies overrun the land. Zombies typically can't swim well, giving you an advantage<sup>1</sup>.
- Scavenging: Practice underwater scavenging techniques to find supplies in submerged areas<sup>2</sup>.

2. Training and Courses:

- Zombie Apocalypse Diver Course: Consider taking the PADI Zombie Apocalypse Diver course. This course teaches survival skills, including underwater navigation, scavenging, and zombie avoidance.
- This highly serious, intense survival course combines the latest zombie intel with advanced dive training. In fact, upon successful completion, the course guarantees that you may have a chance of survival. In just one afternoon, you'll master:
  - · Zombie Biology, History & Types
  - · Real-Life Zombies
  - · Buoyancy, Search & Recovery, and Rescue Skills
  - · Survival & First-Aid Skills Earn the respect of your friends (and the eternal fear of zombies) with your Zombie Apocalypse certification. Plus, you'll get the Zombie Apocalypse Student Manual and Survival Guide, a Zombie Awareness bracelet, and, most importantly, a cool PADI certification card. So, sign up now—don't end up like Shaun of the Dead!

To plan for the Apocalypse, it is important that we have a body count of those desiring to take this course and continue living after...well, you know.

Let us know by e-mail (diveclub@united.com) if you think you have the guts to take this life saving course.

Cost: $50.00 - 60.00

Class & 2 dives to get certified (1 afternoon – Sept. 25)

Yes, this is a credited PADI specialty course.

